

I oppose the weakening of the Indiana Privacy Law by allowing banks and other financial business to be contacting me in order to push there products over the phone